

She entered Selcuk University Faculty of Education Painting Department in 1990. She studied in Vienna between 1992-1993. She completed her education at Selcuk University in 1996. In the same year, she started teaching at the Ministry of Education, still working as a teacher. Moreover, she received her undergraduate education at the Philosophy Department of the Faculty of Letters at Istanbul University. She works mostly on women and music-themed paintings in oil and acrylic techniques.